

I don't think that it is fair that every time something good comes along that the government or whoever has to screw it up. I like listening to the weather and other broadcasts on XM Satelite Radio and will help fight to keep this going in any way I can.